RESPONSIBLE AUTHORITY FOR STATE COUNCIL

PROPOSAL:

The Committee wishes to clarify that in Sec. 5 (g) and Sec. 7 (f) of the Act it is Congress' intent that when any department, agency, officer, or employee of the United States has official business with the state arts and humanities councils that such business is to be directed to the incorporated body and chief operating officer rather than the Chairperson of the incorporated body.

BACKGROUND:

There has existed some confusion as to who is the responsible and appropriate entity for state arts and humanities councils. Some Administration leaders understand that any official business with the state arts and humanities councils can only be conducted through the chair of the state arts and humanities council.
