Dear Anne:

I just want to convey my own personal thanks and best wishes to you as you step down from the American Arts Alliance.

Under your leadership the AAA has blossomed into an effective and well-known advocate for an enormous segment of our national cultural community. You have been a beacon of steadiness and good sense in these terribly difficult times for the arts.

I hope that we can continue to count on your help and counsel in the months ahead as this struggle continues.

With warm personal regards,

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
