Chairperson Sullivan had subsequently submitted a letter of offer to her (dated June 14, 2016) asking her to meet with the FSEC at the next regularly scheduled meeting, June 29. Chairperson Sullivan asked Committee members to review and prioritize the responsibilities of the Director of General Education and provide their responses to him by June 17. He said that the priorities established by the FSEC would be provided to the new Director. Discussion followed. The FSEC discussed the potential need to include a description of the Office of the Director of General Education in the University Manual and the By-Laws of the Faculty Senate.
