Dear Dr. Ball:

Thank you very much for your recent letter and for your kind thoughts about the outcome of the vote on the nomination of Carol Iannone.

As you well know, this nomination presented us with an especially difficult situation, but I strongly believe that it was correct to deny approval of this particular candidate for the NEH Council.

I am grateful to you and the members of the College Art Association for your support in this endeavor and for coming forward when you did to express your concerns about the NEH.

With warm regards,

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
Chairman
Subcommittee on Education,
Arts & Humanities
