Honorable L. A. Bafalis
United States Congress
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Congressman Bafalis:

Thank you for sharing with me the recent letter from your constituent, Mrs. Ina I. Fellows.

My suggestion to Mrs. Fellows is that she contact the Rhode Island Historical Society with a full description of the 1730 Charter, which she has in her possession. It sounds like a very important document. The staff at the Historical Society will be able to guide her further.

The Rhode Island Historical Society is at 55 Power Street, Providence, RI 02906. The director is Mr. Albert Elyberg.

I hope that this information will prove helpful to Mrs. Fellows and that she finds a suitable disposition for this Charter.

Best wishes,

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
Chairman
Subcommittee on Education,
Arts, and Humanities
