Mr. Charles Grossman
The Children's Atelier, Inc.
78 West 82nd Street
New York, New York 10024

Dear Mr. Grossman:

Thank you very much for your recent letter and for bringing me up to date on your activities since we last corresponded. Your work in establishing the Children's Atelier is indeed impressive.

The Rhode Island State Council on the Arts is without doubt the appropriate organization to work with should you expand the program into Rhode Island. The Children's Atelier would certainly find a warm and receptive community there.

You may now be eligible for support under one of the programs of the National Endowment for the Arts. Should you apply for Federal assistance, I would be more than happy to endorse your application. For your information, I am sending along a copy of the Endowment's Guide to Programs.

With warm regards,

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
