Dear Cousin Claiborne:

Under separate cover, my wife, Doris E. Auser, has written to you urging passage of the Museum Services Act and speaking as a director of a small historical museum. I should very much like to accompany her should she appear. Additionally, I am enclosing a statement for the record. I may be considered presumptuous for my statement, but I felt that it has to be said.

I do indeed feel that Federal support can be justified. I wish you well in your sponsorship.

Cordially,

Cortland Pell Auser
