The election in New Hampshire for State Officers was held on the eleventh instant. The result by candidate: for Governor, Mr. M. H. Jackman, 39,215 votes; and Mr. E. T. Read, 26,721 votes. The contest was a close one, but Mr. Jackman was elected by a majority of 2,494 votes.

Conventions got up lately. Various conventions got up lately for the various districts. In some instances there has been a lack of funds to carry on the work, but in others the work has been done in a satisfactory manner. The conventions have been well attended, and the resolutions passed are now being printed and circulated throughout the State.
