The Honorable Claiborne Pell
335 Russell Senate Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Pell:

I noted in yesterday's Providence Journal Bulletin that your vote in the Senate Labor and Human Resources Committee helped block the nomination of Edward A. Curran as the head of the National Endowment for the Humanities. I want to thank you for your fine and continuing support for significant issues that are essential to the well being of education and the humanities.

Most sincerely yours,

Earl S. Stevens, President
