Dear Senator Pell, As you know you have my great respect. Not having had reply to my request to present my case before the Senate Committee in oversight of the National Endowment of the Arts funding, I can only assume that you go along with the current find Liu's Administration's handling of my situation and cannot support my request. As it is a major scandal in prudent and fair personal administration, I really work upon necessity. Even the Great System Protection Board has made I was unfairly treated, therefore I have no faith the Exchequer will correct - as long as the present policies and actions are continued. I believe we must face up to mistakes and deliberate repeated unfair and discriminatory practices, (even if some under the aegis of our old friends), in the Congress and Senate, as well as encompass the good things. I had hoped in your usual fairness you would take an objective view on this matter.

But I realize it is a hard thing to consider. As a constituent of yours, I would appreciate a response however. Thanks. Sincerely

John Howe Kerr
