Here is a draft of the call for papers that we might use as a prelude to our upcoming symposium. We'll discuss emendations to this draft at the next H and H meeting; or, you can e-mail your responses to us at wye101@URIACC.URI.EDU or call us at 782-1731.

CALL FOR PAPERS

For URI conference in Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual Studies

The Committee to Eliminate Heterosexism and Homophobia on Campus is currently soliciting proposals from undergraduate and graduate students, faculty and staff who may be interested in participating in a one-day interdisciplinary symposium in the area of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual Studies to take place next semester (most likely late March 1995) here at URI. Though we expect to bring a keynote speaker from outside the university to this event, we envision a series of scholarly presentations (probably in panel format) and performance pieces (original poetry, fiction, drama, film) primarily reflective of the research and creative work of URI students, faculty and staff on this subject. Please submit one-page abstracts of papers or one-page descriptions of creative performance to by _____

Following are some topics that the symposium might address:

Constructions of sexuality in any historical period or geographical locale; Sexuality in the Visual Arts, Literature, Film, Video, Drama, Performance, Opera, Television, Popular Culture; Queer Social Movements; Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, HIV Activism; Sexuality and the Urban/Rural divide; Butch/Femme Roles; Politics of S/M; Camp; Homoeroticism and Biblical Texts; Sexual Minorities in Organized Religion; The Politics of "Outing"; Sexuality and Ethnicity; African American Gay and Lesbian Politics; Sexuality and Psychoanalysis; Lesbian and Gay Studies in the Academy; Writing Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual Histories; Gays in the Military; Heterosexism in any context; Queer Bashing; Sexuality and the Medical Profession; Media Versions of Sexual Identity; Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual Issues in Biography; Scientific Research in Sexual Orientations: Ethical, Political, and Legal Implications; Homosexuality and the Law; Gay/Lesbian Pedagogy; Gay and Lesbian Youth; Transexuality; Sexuality and Postcolonialism; Sexuality and Sports; Coming Out Stories; Sexuality and Class; Domestic Partnerships
