Dear Clairborne

I hate to bother you - but I would like to be sure that a small request for support of Bargemusic didn't get overlooked.

As you know I am retired but the Dean of Juilliard asked me to help Olga Bloom who started a remarkably successful series of chamber music concerts in a converted barge on the Brooklyn waterfront.

Bargemusic's application was dated Nov 19, 1979 and requested $1,700 under the Chamber Music Series.

Our financial picture has improved since then but support from the National Endowment would encourage all concerned to increase their efforts to advance this project. It is a major factor in the revitalization of that colorful and important part of Brooklyn.

I'm leaving to-morrow to visit for a few in Nassau and will return with you on March 31st.

Hope you don't mind my contacting you in this connection but it is a particularly worthy cause.

Warm regards to you
& Kuala - as ever

Kerry
