Consolidated and Reformed Workforce Development and Literacy Act (1976): Speech 04

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.uri.edu/pell_neh_I_19

Recommended Citation

https://digitalcommons.uri.edu/pell_neh_I_19/45

This Speech is brought to you for free and open access by the Education: National Endowment for the Arts and Humanities, Subject Files I (1973-1996) at DigitalCommons@URI. It has been accepted for inclusion in Consolidated and Reformed Workforce Development and Literacy Act (1976) by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@URI. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@etal.uri.edu.
Issue: Loan Guarantee Program

Background: The House bill has a provision that would allow the Secretary of Labor to establish a loan program to enable employers, business associations, institutions of higher education, and trade organizations to borrow to upgrade their training programs. The Senate bill has no such provision.

Talking Points: Very simply, I believe that we should not get into this area. Our experience in higher education loans for facilities and dormitories was a spotty one, to say the least. We had a terrible situation with defaults. And, when we curtailed the program several years ago, we ended up selling loans at bargain basement prices.