Dear Senator,

Just now I have been told of the attached vacancy and have applied. I believe I am the ideal candidate and enclose my answers to their questions on why along with the announcement.

I write you to let you know of this progress as you wrote them Nov 17th, 1978 on my behalf. See attached copy of your letter to Secretary Andrus. It sometimes takes awhile...but I thought you'd like to know that in my application I have been happy to include a copy of your good letter of Nov 17.

When in Newport this past week, I noticed your son is running for public office. I wish him well...as do I always you and Mrs Pell,

Cordially,

John Hoare Kerr
