Dear Mr. Chambers:

Thank you very much for your recent letter and for passing along the good news about your course at Brown in the Fall. It should be a very worthwhile session for those who enroll.

I have checked again with the Smithsonian's Museum of American History about the position there which interests you. Dr. Kennedy, the director, did receive my letter on your behalf but apparently there is no movement in the Office of Personnel to conduct interviews at this time.

If I hear anything further from the Smithsonian, I will be sure to be in touch with you.

With warm regards,

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
