Dear Courty:

Thank you very much for your letter with the updated information on Duke University's application to the National Endowment for the Humanities.

As far as I can tell, Duke need not apply exclusively for challenge grant money, i.e., a 3 for 1 matching grant. Duke's application, however, should still be sent to the appropriate program at the Endowment but as a request for an outright grant rather than a challenge grant. I suggest that Professor Barber contact Mr. Steven Rabin, Assistant Director of the Media Program, to iron out any technical questions. His telephone number is 202 724-0318.

If in fact a challenge grant is being sought, then perhaps a smaller amount should be requested by Duke.

Many thanks for keeping in touch.

Warm regards.

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
