Westerly, Rhode Island 02891

Dear Mrs. Utter:

Thank you very much for your recent letter and for sending the informative booklet about the Community Chorus of Westerly.

I am delighted to know that the Chorus is contemplating a Washington visit in the Spring of 1983. In this regard, Henry Moses, has indeed been in touch with Alexander Crary of my staff. It is my understanding that an appointment was arranged for Mr. Moses with Ms. Hamm at the Kennedy Center.

If there are further ways in which I can be of assistance in this endeavor, please don't hesitate to call on me. I am returning one of the booklets which you kindly sent and am keeping the other here in the Washington office.

With warm regards,

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
