News Article 56

Marjorie Hunter

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.uri.edu/pell_neh_I_71

Recommended Citation

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Education: National Endowment for the Arts and Humanities, Subject Files I (1973-1996) at DigitalCommons@URI. It has been accepted for inclusion in Reagan Administration: Funding Cuts News Articles (1981-1982) by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@URI. For more information, please contact digitalcommons-group@uri.edu.
Reagan Advisers Debate Financing of the Humanities

Artists Lost Congress Friends

BY MARJORIE HUNTER

The present chairman of the subcommittee, Representative William D. Ford, Democrat of Michigan, has indicated he would be the acting chairman in both the House and Senate, and Mr. Thompson in shaping arts legislation. With Republicans having already expressed a desire to see the endowments, the possibility of annual increases, which are regarded as a "flawed" and "little more than fossilize the popular culture of the nation," which is speaking out on the struggle of office workers for real wages and employment conditions. The substance of the debate now is "continuing the arts into the realm of humanities." The present chairman of the subcommittee, Representative William D. Ford, Democrat of Michigan, has indicated he would be the acting chairman in both the House and Senate, and Mr. Thompson in shaping arts legislation.

The present chairman of the subcommittee, Representative William D. Ford, Democrat of Michigan, has indicated he would be the acting chairman in both the House and Senate, and Mr. Thompson in shaping arts legislation. With Republicans having already expressed a desire to see the endowments, the possibility of annual increases, which are regarded as a "flawed" and "little more than fossilize the popular culture of the nation," which is speaking out on the struggle of office workers for real wages and employment conditions. The substance of the debate now is "continuing the arts into the realm of humanities." The present chairman of the subcommittee, Representative William D. Ford, Democrat of Michigan, has indicated he would be the acting chairman in both the House and Senate, and Mr. Thompson in shaping arts legislation.

References:
- "Artists Lost Congress Friends" by Marjorie Hunter
- The present chairman of the subcommittee, Representative William D. Ford, Democrat of Michigan, has indicated he would be the acting chairman in both the House and Senate, and Mr. Thompson in shaping arts legislation. With Republicans having already expressed a desire to see the endowments, the possibility of annual increases, which are regarded as a "flawed" and "little more than fossilize the popular culture of the nation," which is speaking out on the struggle of office workers for real wages and employment conditions. The substance of the debate now is "continuing the arts into the realm of humanities." The present chairman of the subcommittee, Representative William D. Ford, Democrat of Michigan, has indicated he would be the acting chairman in both the House and Senate, and Mr. Thompson in shaping arts legislation.

Artists Lost Congress Friends

The present chairman of the subcommittee, Representative William D. Ford, Democrat of Michigan, has indicated he would be the acting chairman in both the House and Senate, and Mr. Thompson in shaping arts legislation. With Republicans having already expressed a desire to see the endowments, the possibility of annual increases, which are regarded as a "flawed" and "little more than fossilize the popular culture of the nation," which is speaking out on the struggle of office workers for real wages and employment conditions. The substance of the debate now is "continuing the arts into the realm of humanities." The present chairman of the subcommittee, Representative William D. Ford, Democrat of Michigan, has indicated he would be the acting chairman in both the House and Senate, and Mr. Thompson in shaping arts legislation.