COMMITTEE TO ELIMINATE HOMOPHOBIA AND HETEROSEXISM
Minutes for Meeting on October 13, 1995

1. Attendance  The following were present at the meeting. Email addresses for new attendees are provided: Gary Burkholder; Bill Bartels; Carla Pickering; Jacque Lynne Washkwich; Kelly Kochis; Brent Reinhard; Marie Rudd; Brie Taylor; Amy Black; Dana Shugar; Nancy Azar (NAZA8850); Lois Cuddy; Holly Nichols; Amy Long (ALON3117); Greta Cohen; Mary Cappello (WYE101); Wally Sillanpoa; Laurie Johnson; Andrew Winters. Introductions were made.

2. Minutes for the 9/29/95 meeting were approved with changes (spelling of Marie Rudd; Joan Nestle’s requested honorarium is 1000.00 vice 800.00; in paragraph 6, Kim should be Amy).

3. Dana reported that Joan Nestle would like to present at URI on Tuesday, February 20, 1996. Since we have the lead time, and her Brown presentation was canceled due to her accident, it was anticipated that we might get a large crowd. Therefore, the Gallanti Lounge was deemed not appropriate. Marie Rudd is going to try for the Ballroom and other areas that are larger than the Galanti Lounge. Publicity needs to be started right away. It was pointed out that Joan’s Feb 20 appearance can actually help publicize the Symposium set for April 10-12.

4. Symposium update. Copies of the final version of the call for papers were made available to H&H committee members. Subcommittee (Gary, Wally, Andrew, Holly, Kelly and Amy) will meet Friday, Oct 20, at 3:00pm to begin process of mailing to the community, URI organizations, and other colleges and universities in Rhode Island. Many people offered to handle some of the Xeroxing requirements within their departments and organizations. Wally is going to investigate a space for Barbara Smith’s appearance. Barbara Smith has confirmed via phone that she is available for the 10th. Bill received a request for more information on proposal requirements for the symposium. He is going to send a copy of the call for papers and a sample proposal from last year.

5. Brent updated the committee on the status of the GLB resource brochure. Progress is being made to prepare a brochure that gives a comprehensive listing of campus activities, as well as selected activities in the greater RI area. An attempt will be made to have an initial draft by next meeting.

6. Lois Cuddy provided directions and phone number to her house for the potluck social. Mary advertised a costume party to be held Oct 20 at 8:00pm. Brent reported that the GLBA is having a Halloween party Saturday, Oct 28. He will provide directions later.

7. OUTFLICKS (DYKE-IV) was well received. Mary suggested that the H&H committee, in the future, help promote OUTFLICKS to attract a wider audience.

8. Amy Long made a presentation to H&H to get co-sponsorship for bringing the author of “Heather Has Two Mommies” to campus in November. Because of very limited funds, the H&H agreed that, although it couldn’t provide financial support, the committee could help with advertising and promotion. Amy has $800.00 committed, needs a total of 1500.00 to bring speaker. Gary will provide her information to contact the Richard Katzoff foundation for support. Mary suggested that Jean could target students in her class for attendance to this, since she taught this book in one of her literature courses.

9. Other H&H projects: 1) Establishment of a video resource library; 2) Jacque agreed to chair a subcommittee, consisting of herself, Brent, Nancy, and Mary, to brainstorm and investigate the possibility of creating a diversity video that could be shown during orientation, during RA training, and in the URI 101 course; 3) Since November is being considered as Gay and Lesbian History month, Andrew suggested that we put together a flier of events happening during that month and distribute it. He also thought we could do something to educate about violence (Andrew related a recent vandalism incident at David’s in Newport). Andrew will work in conjunction with student groups to get information together for the flier.
I handed out a flier for a conference for survivors of sexual assault, supporters, and professionals, called "To the Truth".

Meeting adjourned at 1:00pm. Dana Shugar will facilitate the next meeting, since Bill will be away during that time. The next meeting is October 27, 1995, 12:00 noon, Memorial Union room 202.
