Dear John:

Thanks very much for your two recent notes. I very much regret the delay in responding, but time is hard to find as campaign activities accelerate.

I have had you and your job search in mind over the last two months and, sadly, very few openings at your salary level have come to my attention. You are probably aware that the Humanities Endowment continues to seek a Director for their Division of Public Programs, as well as a Deputy Director.

I have already recommended Rusty Powell for the Director's position at the Museum of the Rhode Island School of Design. However, if you would tell me more about your applications to UNESCO and the Peace Corps, I would be delighted to write them letters on your behalf.

With warmest regards,

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
