Dear Channing:

Just a brief note to say what a pleasure it has been to work with you over the past few years. During your tenure as Director of Congressional Liaison, the image of the Humanities Endowment on the Hill has brightened substantially. The work of the Endowment is without doubt better known and appreciated by my colleagues now than it was four years ago and this is a change which I warmly welcome. I am tremendously grateful to you for the role you have played in this regard.

Thank you for all of the superb work which you have so ably provided my office. We will miss you and wish you every success in your future endeavors.

With warm regards,

Everysincerely,

Claiborne Pell
