Dear Senator, I have, for your recent and previous note. Yet, I've not heard a reply on my question as to possible prospects for my kind of coming up, and since you are always so prompt, I feel it may have miscarried.
I have written you earlier inquiring if you knew of any hope to hear from them. In general I have Encourage possibilities, but surely seems to come through on the receipt schedule I’ve been coming. Yet, I am encouraged. But it was, at 11.30 h.m., and I somehow feel you can venture past many you learned of some even I may not have thought of to date. I’d be delighted to stop by in Washington to talk at any point. Of course, my other plans are 634-6028, also, in P.C. or Park Ave. You also want to receive me to set up a time. Yet I know how busy you are so if not convenient,
