Dear Professor Mellink:

Your colleague in the Archaeological Institute of America, John Slocum, has suggested that I advise you on how you might best express your concern about the proposed cuts in the budgets of the National Endowments for the Arts and Humanities.

Since these budgets are currently being debated in the House and Senate Appropriations Subcommittees, my recommendations are for you to write the respective Chairman of these bodies. In the Senate you should contact Senator James McClure, Chairman, Senate Appropriations Subcommitteee on the Interior and Related Agencies, Room 3121, Dirksen Senate Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20510. In the House of Representatives, your letters should be directed to Representative Sidney Yates, Chairman House Appropriations Subcommittee on the Interior and Related Agencies, Room B308, Rayburn House Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20515.

I hope this information will assist you in directing your concerns to the appropriate people.

With warm regards,

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell.
