Wakefield, Rhode Island 02879

Dear Ms. Hull:

Thank you very much for your recent letter and for informing me of your candidacy for an internship at the Library of Congress.

I am delighted to know this and have taken the liberty of writing to the Librarian of Congress to express my support for your application. A copy of my letter is going to the intern program coordinator and another is enclosed for your own records.

Thank you for writing and please be sure to let me know if there is anything else I can help you with.

With warm regards.

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell

The Honorable Daniel J. Boorstin
The Librarian of Congress
Library of Congress
10 First Street, S.E.
Washington, D.C. 20540

Dear Dr. Boorstin:

It has come to my attention that Catherine Hull, a graduate student in Library Science at the University of Rhode Island, is a candidate for a one year internship at the Library of Congress.

I am writing you to express my very real admiration for Ms. Hull's experience in and dedication to the library field. She served on the board of trustees of two of Rhode Island's fine public libraries before returning to the University of Rhode Island to complete her master's degree.

I respect her abilities and her judgment and know that she would perform her duties as an intern with considerable skill and talent. I hope that you will give her candidacy every consideration.

With warm regards,

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
