Assessment of:

- Suitability of existing library resources;
- New library resources required to support the program;
- Information skills education required by the students; and
- Funds needed for library materials and services.

Please include:

1. What library holdings already exist in relevant subject categories, including supporting collections from HELIN. How much money is now allocated in the program area?

The library has a large monographic collection pertaining to Education. A small part of the collection relates to Digital Media and Digital Literacy. Additional monographic titles in these areas are available through the HELIN consortium. The monographic budget allocation for Education is $8,000 for academic year 13-14. All the funds have been expended for this year. The cost of databases is spread over all departments.

2. Does URI have the essential journals as noted in the Faculty Questionnaire?

No essential journals were listed in the Faculty Questionnaire. URI currently subscribes to the three databases listed in the questionnaire: JStor, ERIC and Academic Search Premier.

3. What new resources are required to support the course (including media, electronic, or other non-print materials)?

No new library resources are required to support the course.

4. What information mastery sessions will be required for the students?

No library information mastery sessions are required for the students.

5. What is the approximate cost to acquire the materials necessary? Which of these will be continuing costs?

There are no new library resources required to support this course.
