Dear Ms. Rayak:

Thank you for your letter of January 21st about your interest in working with the Subcommittee on Education, Arts and Humanities. I regret to say that this year the main focus of the Subcommittee's work will be on the reauthorization of the Higher Education Act. Last year, as I am sure you know, was a time for intensive activity in the arts which culminated in a three-year reauthorization for the NEA.

If the Subcommittee takes on any volunteer staff this summer, these individuals will, by necessity, be education-oriented. I am the only staff member with full-time responsibility for the arts and humanities and at this time we have no other positions open.

You might want to contact Volunteer Lawyers for the Arts here in Washington at (202) 429-0229 to explore other opportunities.

With kind regards,

Sincerely,

Alexander D. Crary
Professional Staff Member
Subcommittee on Education,
Arts and Humanities
