Sister Jane Nugent
3070 Pawtucket Avenue
East Providence, Rhode Island 02915

Dear Sister Nugent:

Thank you very much for your recent letter and for your very warm thoughts.

Your proposal to do research on the founding of the Sisters of Mercy is a very good one indeed. However, there are no federal monies available to help pay for an individual's travel abroad. Unfortunately, this is one of the most difficult areas to find support for.

I would suggest that you get in touch with the Rhode Island Committee for the Humanities in Providence. This organization occasionally has grant money available for projects relating to local history. Travel money most likely would not be available.

The Committee's address is 463 Broadway, Providence, Rhode Island 02909 and their telephone is 273-2250.

With warm personal regards.

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Poll
