Dear Ms. Catalho:

Thank you very much for your recent letter and for your good thoughts in regard to my proposal for a National Art Bank.

Your suggestion that our museums loan works from their storage areas is a most intriguing one. As you say, except for shipping and insurance costs, expenses could be held to a minimum.

I will certainly keep your idea in mind as we develop this proposal further in the upcoming Congress and will raise it when a hearing is held later in the year.

I appreciate the fact that you have taken the time to write me on this issue and hope you will not hesitate to do so again.

With warm regards,

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
