August 6, 1979

THE CHAIRMAN

Honorable Claiborne Pell
Chairman
Subcommittee on Education, Arts
and Humanities
United States Senate
Washington, D. C. 20510

Dear Senator Pell:

Thank you for advising me of your support for the upcoming symposium "Monasticism and the Arts."

The application for Endowment funds which we have received is being considered in our Division of Research Grants.

Following careful and full evaluation by peer reviewers and other experts in the field, the National Council on the Humanities will make its recommendation. At that time I will be sure to advise you of the final decision regarding the proposal.

Thank you for your continuing support of the National Endowment for the Humanities. If I may be of further assistance, please let me know.

Sincerely,
