and Welfare

Dear Lee:

It has come to my attention that the Warwick Museum in Warwick, Rhode Island, has submitted an application for special project support to the Institute of Museum Services.

With IMS funds, the Museum will study the wide range of problems and opportunities which a small museum can undertake in a neighborhood that is undergoing substantial revitalization. The historical and cultural resources that this fine local history museum offers are vital to the surrounding community.

I wish to express my strong support for the Warwick Museum's grant request and hope that, after careful consideration, the Institute will act favorably on it.

7 Warm regards.

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
