Dear Senator Pell:

Your letter of November 17 concerning the detail of John Hoare Kerr from the National Endowment for the Arts to the International Communication Agency arrived just as arrangements were being concluded for Mr. Kerr to join us during the first week of December.

As you know, Mr. Kerr previously served with USIA as Cultural Affairs Officer in Madras, India. His considerable expertise will be of value during his year on loan to us. I have long endorsed this type of Federal executive interchange and appreciate your interest. I trust that Mr. Kerr's assignment will be as productive for him and the National Endowment as it will be for this Agency.

Sincerely,

John E. Reinhardt
Director

The Honorable
Claiborne Pell
