Mr. J. Carter Brown
Director
National Gallery of Art
Washington, D.C. 20565

Dear Carter:

I am sending along copies of an exchange of letters with Norman Fiering, the Director of the John Carter Brown Library at Brown University.

I completely agree with him that you would be an ideal member of any future commission to help organize a fitting celebration for America's 500th birthday.

The legislation to establish such a commission still awaits final approval in the Congress, but at the appropriate time I would be delighted to suggest you as a member.

With warm personal regards,

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
