Joan Nestle

"Memory, History, and Desire: A Discussion with Joan Nestle"

Joan Nestle is an author, activist, co-founder and coordinator of the Lesbian Herstory Archives. Nestle is the author of seven books on lesbian lives and culture. She is noted for her biography of Mable Hampton, a working-class, African-American Lesbian who came out in the 1930s and recently passed away. She also is the co-editor (with John Preston) of Sister and Brother: Lesbian and Gay Men Write About Their Lives. Nestle's talk will focus on the Archives, issues of sexuality, and lesbian experience.
