Dear Mr. Rector.

Thank you for your recent letter concerning the grant selection procedure used by the National Endowment for the Humanities.

I have contacted the Endowment concerning your problem and have learned that unsuccessful applications to the Summer Stipend Program are not re-reviewed. As you have been informed, the only option is to re-apply, keeping the reviewers comments in mind and hopefully your application will be approved in another round.

Again, thank you for bringing this matter to my attention.

Best wishes.

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Bell
Chairman
Subcommittee on Education,
Arts, and Humanities
