Dear Professor Heath:

Thank you very much for your recent letter in regard to S. 1723, a bill to implement the UNESCO Convention on Cultural Property.

This bill was introduced last October and has been referred to the Senate Finance Committee where hearings may be scheduled later in the year.

I am particularly pleased to know of your support for this legislation and can assure you that I will follow its progress closely.

Thank you again for writing.

With warm regards,

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
