Vice-President
The American Artists Professional
League, Inc.

Dear Michel:

I appreciated receiving a copy of your recent letter to Liv Biddle in which you seek an accounting of all N.E.A. funds spent on public sculptures.

It is also good to hear that a dialogue of sorts has been established between the League and the Arts Endowment. The issues which you and your colleagues deem important can best be served by open channels of communication.

Your letters are always most welcome.

With warm regards.

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
