Dear Ann:

Many thanks for your recent letter and for bringing me up to date on your interesting activities since we were last in touch. I am delighted to know of your new position with the San Francisco Archives for the Performing Arts.

It would be a pleasure to see you when you are here in Washington in the Fall, if my schedule permits. Let me know at your earliest convenience when you expect to be here so that we might work something out.

With warm personal regards.

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
