Dear Maizie:

I have just returned from the Memorial Day recess and have had only a very brief opportunity to read your most recent book proposal. Please continue to keep me posted on your efforts with respect to securing a publisher and the necessary funds for printing.

If you should ultimately make an application to the National Endowment for the Arts, please let me know, because I am eager to support your project in any way I can.

With warm regards.

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
