Mr. Jack Brondum
150 Brown Street
Providence, RI 02906

Dear Mr. Brondum:

Thank you very much for your recent letter with your inquiry about a possible fellowship from the National Endowment for the Arts.

From the brief description of your project, it would seem that you might be more eligible for support under the Fellowship Program at the National Endowment for the Humanities. In order that you can review all the types of assistance available, I am sending you a guide to the programs at each Endowment.

Following each program category is an address to which you should write for more specific guidelines. The Fellowships Program at NEH, for example, would supply detailed descriptions of each fellowship category as well as the appropriate application forms.

Please be sure to let me know if I can offer any further assistance.

Warm regards.

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
