The Special Representative for Trade
Negotiations
1155 15th Street, NW
Washington, DC 20006

Dear Bob:

Thank you very much for your letter in which you proposed the name of Clark Tyler as a possible director for one of the White House Conferences.

There will, in fact, be two separate conferences--one on the arts and one on the humanities--with a director for each appointed by the President. The conferences will be held concurrently sometime in early 1980.

I will be happy to suggest Mr. Tyler's name to the President when the appropriate time comes. Thank you for bringing him to my attention.

Again, thanks so much for writing.

Warm regards.

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
