Dear Ms. Cannon:

Thank you very much for your letter in which you inquire about financial assistance for your studies at New York University should your sabbatical leave not be approved.

It is indeed difficult to locate funding sources for this kind of pre-doctoral graduate work. I believe your best bet would be to work directly through your program office at New York University. There are undoubtedly some fellowships available for students such as yourself.

I can also suggest that you look into the Guaranteed Student Loan Program which you will find described in the enclosed brochures. The green booklet includes private sources for student assistance as well.

I certainly hope that your sabbatical leave is approved.

Warm regards.

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
