At the meeting of December 15, 1966, the Faculty Senate voted to approve the following recommendations of the Executive Committee for participation in the 75th Anniversary Celebration of the founding of the University:

Recommendation No. 1

The faculty should be urged to contribute toward a fund which is to be used for the purchase of works of art and rare books for the University. Funds raised are to be allocated according to the following schedule:

From $1 to $2,500 to be spent on works of art
From $2,501 to $5,000 to be spent on rare books
From $5,001 to $6,000 to be spent on works of art
From $6,001 to $7,500 to be spent on rare books

Recommendation No. 2

The Faculty Senate requests the President's Committee on Faculty Social and Recognition to consider organizing a 75th Anniversary Ball for faculty and administrative officers to commemorate the founding of the University.
