Dear Dr. Sullivan:

Many thanks for your recent letter in which you expressed an interest in working here on the Senate Subcommittee on Education, Arts, and Humanities.

I regret to say that at the present time, there are no openings on the Subcommittee staff either in the education area or in the arts and humanities. We are restricted by a hiring ceiling imposed by the full Committee and must do the best we can with the four slots allotted to us.

Your credentials for work in arts administration are excellent and my best suggestion is to contact the National Endowment for the Arts where the turnover in personnel is greater. I will keep your letter on file and be in touch should I hear of something more specific.

With kind regards.

Sincerely,

Alexander D. Crary
Staff Assistant
Subcommittee on Education,
Arts, and Humanities
