Mr. FrankjP. Davidson
140 Walden Street
Concord, Massachusetts

Dear Frank:

Thank you very much for your letter with your thoughts on the proposed National Museum of the Building Arts.

It is indeed an exciting project which will have my enthusiastic backing in the Senate. Senator Charles Mathias and I intend to introduce a bill in the near future that would establish the National Building Arts Educational Foundation, which will in turn develop plans for the museum.

I appreciate hearing from you and want you to feel free to call on me whenever I can be of help to you.

All Best wishes.

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
