Dear Mr. Ross:

Thank you very much for your kind note of March 28. I, too, was grateful for a chance to talk with you and learn something of the Humanities Program in Arkansas. I continue to believe that the State Programs are the most important element in the overall NEW program.

I regret to say that the Pell Trust does not have any piece of art that can be loaned. Your thoughtful offer, however, is very much appreciated.

Warm regards.

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
