Mr. Albert T. ~~Kyberg~~
Chairman
Rhode Island Committee for the Humanities
86 Weybosset Street
Room 300
Providence, RI 02908

Dear Al:

It is my understanding that a number of vacancies on the Rhode Island Committee for the Humanities will be filled over the next month or two.

In this regard, I would like to put forward the name of Carol Ahern, of Providence, as an excellent possibility for membership on the Committee.

Carol holds an M.A. in English from Brown University and was the recipient of an Associate Fellowship from the Danforth Foundation of Higher Education. She is an active community leader in Rhode Island with a tremendously broad range of interests and responsibilities--from being a board member of the Libbitt Hill Tutorial to teaching at Lincoln School and URI Extension.

If this thought has merit to you and your Executive Committee, I would hope that you might contact Carol directly. Her address is Nine Oriole Avenue, Providence, Rhode Island 02906

Warm regards.

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Fell
