

3-12-1925

The Beacon (03/12/1925)

University of Rhode Island

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.uri.edu/beacon>

Recommended Citation

University of Rhode Island, "The Beacon (03/12/1925)" (1925). The Beacon (Student Newspaper). Book 21.

<https://digitalcommons.uri.edu/beacon/21> <https://digitalcommons.uri.edu/beacon/21>

This Article is brought to you by the University of Rhode Island. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Beacon (Student Newspaper) by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@URI. For more information, please contact digitalcommons-group@uri.edu. For permission to reuse copyrighted content, contact the author directly.

FOURTEEN BEACON VACANCIES FILLED

Messrs. Kinzie, Hiller and Lawton Obtain Highest Positions; Many Freshmen Elected

Fully fourteen vacancies were filled at a meeting of the Beacon board on March 3. The new men begin their work at once.

Donald R. Kinzie, '26, secured the coveted position of editor-in-chief as Willis J. Snow, '25, leaves the Beacon after a long period of faithful and appreciated work. Albert L. Hiller, recruited from the news staff, enters the responsible position of managing editor. G. Parker Lawton, '26, by virtue of his sincere interest in our publication, replaces William F. Lucker, '25. Both the outgoing and incoming members of the three highest positions are to be complimented for their efforts in building up the paper.

Byron Cook, '26, enters anew as feature editor for William H. Ford, who resigned. Milton W. Callis, '28, advances to campus editor. The remaining members of the associate board retain their former positions.

To fill the openings thus made on the news board we find listed Walter S. Gratton, '26, George H. Glines, '27, Benjamin Fine, '28, and Maurice H. Conn, '28. In the capacity of reporters,

(Continued on page 3)

SIGNIFICANCE OF RELIGION SHOWN

Dr. Dieffenbach Conducts Vespers; Confederate Religion Impossible

Dr. Albert C. Dieffenbach, editor of the Christian Register, took as his sermon the verses from Hebrews: "The word of God is quick and powerful, We have a high priest Jesus who cannot be touched by feeling or sin. Make suitable offering unto God. Give us a deep and sensible meaning of kinship. Let nothing but joy and happiness radiate from within us. And let there be peace upon this earth."

Dr. Dieffenbach spoke of the value of religion in this world. The fundamental factor that makes for greatness is love of liberty, freedom, education and religious training. Any man who evades his duty is an enemy to man and God. We should be guided by love and mercy.

The speaker emphasized the fact that we cannot have a confederate religion. Each man is entitled to believe as his conscience dictates. We fulfill the law by adapting ourselves to our environments. We hear what we are trained to hear. We see what we are trained to see, and we are what we are trained to be. This makes men and women that are mightier than things—the sons and daughters of God.

SENIORS TO EDIT BEACON ISSUE

Cane Regulations Changed; Class Dance in Near Future

A meeting of the Senior class was held in the Chemistry lecture room on March 5th.

After the Entertainment Committee reported, it was decided that it was too late in the year to have a circus. Instead of this circus, plans for a dance were proposed and accepted; these plans are to be carried out by the entertainment committee.

The Cane Committee reported and the following rules for wearing canes were passed: 1, They are to be carried on Sunday or any other time which may be desirable; 2, All Seniors are to be appropriately dressed when carrying canes.

Grist reports were considered and discussed. After this the matter of caps and gowns for graduation were debated upon for which a committee of three was selected: G. L. Spargo, M. H. Bidwell and Miss E. Burdick.

The subject of diplomas and invitation was considered and a committee was appointed in charge. This committee was comprised of G. L. Young, E. A. Arnold and Miss D. Markham.

It was decided to have a Senior Beacon and the following were chosen for the board: Editor-in-chief, W. J. Snow, managing editor, W. F. Lucker; editorial board, J. J. Callanan, L. E. Tilly, G. L. Young, M. H. Bidwell, L. G. Burlingame, N. W. Smith, D. M. Marcum and the Misses L. R. Beery, E. Moskovich and S. Cohen.

After the election of the board the meeting adjourned.

THIRD STUDENT COUNCIL MEETS

Coal Pile Due to Diminish; Cleary Gets Prize of 20 Hours; Other Minor Sentences Given

The liveliest Student Council meeting of the year took place Tuesday, March 3. Words flew thick and fast and there was not a dull moment in the whole affair. Those constituting the court were Mr. Lucker for the Seniors, Mr. Bosworth and Mr. Jensen for the Juniors and Mr. Armstrong for the Sophomores. Mr. Lucker called the meeting to order and announced that thereafter the Freshmen who were put up for breaking rules would have to work their time off on the good coal pile. There were about 500 tons of coal to be put in the bins, so there was plenty of work to be done.

One of the first of the defendants was Mr. Brenner, who showed that on the date of his alleged misdemeanor he was not at college at all. Mr. Lucker announced, however, that five hours on the coal pile would probably not hurt the defendant at all and

(Continued on page 2)

R. I. CO-EDS TRIM CONN. GIRLS, 42-8

Duggie Works Hard as Does Evey; K. Clark and V. Broome Take Care of Center Court; Conn. Co-eds Outclassed

From the outset the Co-ed game with Connecticut was marked by quick passwork and clever baskets—starring Duggie. It was not until the middle of the second quarter that the Connecticut team worked up much opposition, although they made a brilliant showing in their new orange blouses.

After crashing out with a basket to start things off, R. I. literally carried the first quarter away from Connecticut, the score being 14-0 in R. I.'s favor. Connecticut picked up on the passwork in the second quarter and worked up good opposition which lasted until the end of the game.

During the second half there was much clever passwork by both teams

(Continued on Page 2)

PROVIDENCE MAN ADDRESSES THE ECONOMISTS

Phases of Real Estate and Its Relation to Education Made Clear

Wednesday evening, March 4th, the Economists held an open meeting. Charles E. Hunter of Providence was the speaker of the evening and had as his topic, "Real Estate." He said that business in real estate was gained from experience. There are books published telling how to appraise real estate, but more is gained through actual experience. Several different branches of the business exist; brokers, developers, operators and mortgage men.

Mr. Hunter then spoke about the stability of property. Real estate is the last thing to go up in price and the last thing to come down. The war was almost over before real estate went up in price. At this time rent became at a premium, and all property rose accordingly. Men in real estate business must know the actual value of property; they must talk and solicit the business of prospective customers. The entire trade is based on service, with three interested parties—the buyer, the broker and the dealer. A broker must be able to study and know human nature in order to make good sales. Prospects can only be secured by going out and meeting people. He must take advantage of every opportunity he meets, although it means hard work.

Mr. Hunter spoke of the advantages of a college educated man. It was his experience, he said, to observe that a college man has a greater chance of success than a man of experience, but without a college education. The college man is far ahead of his non-college rival.

MUCH ENTHUSIASM RAISED AT MASS MEETING

Prexy Pleased With School Spirit; Cheers and Songs Practiced

Friday, March 6, a mass meeting was called in Lippitt Hall to work up enthusiasm among the students and to encourage the basketball players. This was the first mass meeting since the one before the Connecticut football game. Head Cheer Leader George H. Gaddes, '25, opened the meeting by conducting a long Rhode Island cheer. He explained that the students have a great deal to do in winning a game. They should cheer the team along as it encourages the players to greater effort when they know that the student body is backing them. He explained the cheers that would be used during the various parts of the game and led several of the more intricate ones.

Coach Keaney was then called upon to say a few words. After much persuasion, he gave his speech from the stage instead of his usual place on the side lines. He said that if there is one thing to be learned in college it is to be a good sport. We should always treat the visiting teams with the respect that is due to the guests of the college. The coach pointed out the importance of encouraging our teams, whether we win or lose. The Freshman team especially should be encouraged for, as green players, they are quickly discouraged.

Captain Pinto made a short but spicy speech saying that the varsity basketball team would put on a great fight against their Connecticut opponents. He was received with great applause.

(Continued on page 3)

INTER-FRATERNITY BASKET BALL

P. I. K. and "Deses" Win Games

League Standing

	P.	W.	L.	Pc.
Rho Iota Kappa	6	6	0	1.000
Campus Club	7	6	1	.857
Delta Sigma Epsilon	7	5	2	.715
Non-Fraternity	6	4	2	.667
Beta Phi	6	3	3	.500
Beta Nu Epsilon	7	3	4	.429
Zeta Pi Alpha	5	2	3	.400
Lambda Chi Alpha	6	2	4	.333
Delta Alpha Psi	5	0	5	.000
Theta Chi	7	0	7	.000

Summary of games: Rho Iota Kappa 15; Beta Phi 10. Rho Iota Kappa, continued to keep its slate clean of defeats by taking Beta Phi into camp to the tune of 15 to 10. The game was loosely played and at times became a little rough. Referee McKechnie warning the players against unnecessary roughness. The P. I. K. quintet played a great

(Continued on page 4)

The Beacon

OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF

Published weekly by the students of
R. I. State College

Terms of Subscription

One year in advance $2.00
Single copies05
Signed statements printed when space permits. Responsibility for same not assumed by the paper.
Subscribers who do not receive their paper regularly are requested to notify the Business Manager.

Notice of Entry

Acceptance for mailing at special rate postage provided for in Section 1103, Act of October 3, 1917, Authorized January 13, 1919.
Member of the Eastern Intercollegiate Newspaper Association

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

Donald R. Kinzie, '26

MANAGING EDITOR

Albert L. Hiller, '27

BUSINESS MANAGER

G. Parker Lawton, '26

CONTRIBUTING EDITOR

Willis J. Snow, '25

NEWS STAFF

Associate Board

Walter Siuta, '27, Athletics
Hope M. Dyer, '26, Intercollegiate
Byron Cook, '26, Feature
Milton W. Callis, '28, Campus
Martha O. Sayles, '26, Co-ed

NEWS BOARD

George E. Parr, '26
Katherine V. Clark, '26
Walter S. Gratton, '26
Mildred L. Thompson, '27
Ethel D. Hay, '27
Charles Wilcox, '27
Bernice E. Grieves, '27
George H. Glines, '27
Dwight W. Randall, '28
Francis J. Buckley, '28
Maurice Conn, '28
Benjamin Fine, '28

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

Russell A. Eckloff, '27, Advertising
Kenneth Earle, '28, Subscription
Simon College, '28, Circulation
Samuel Engdahl, '28
Robert M. Asdikian, '28

INTERCOLLEGIATE

Dartmouth—Dartmouth College has made a new ruling in rushing season. During the past two weeks a drastic step was taken by the faculty of the college. An edict commanding all fraternities to confine their rushing to men in the second or higher years, has been received without protest from the student body. This will eliminate many rules which, in the past, have proved a handicap and will give the Freshmen a better chance for a true rating.

University of Rochester—Dr. Frost of the Psychological department at Rochester has been trying out an experiment whereby students enrolled in his classes may show original and individual work. The classes are divided into two groups: the honor men, who occupy the front seats in the classroom and those who merely pass the course are seated in the back. Those of high scholastic standing are freed from all written work, including tests, which enables them to do much original work and so enjoy thoroughly the work of the course.

Will you marry me?

On one condition—

I entered college on three.—Ex.

THIRD STUDENT COUNCIL MEETS

(Continued from Page 1)

sentenced him for that amount of time. The next culprit was up for not reporting to the athletic managers for work. He said he had reported but the managers had not checked him off. McKechnie arose and said that if a Freshman did not have his name checked off the list it was the Freshman's own fault. The unlucky Frosh in question and several others up for the same offense were given five hours.

Failure to report to the Beacon office for work was the cause for many Freshmen being put up. Mr. Richardson, one of these, said that as he lived in the village and ate there he did not hear his name when it was read in the dining hall and so could not get to the Beacon office in time to do any work.

This statement started a heated and lengthy discussion, which was often interrupted by boos and hissing. Mr. Armstrong said that the excuse given had not been good last year and he did not see why it should be good this year. Mr. Jensen then said that students should read the bulletins more, as the names of those for work were posted there. It was proved, however, that the names were not always on the boards. The council had a discussion after this, and then Mr. Lucker said that a student living in the village should keep more in touch with the college than it was evident Mr. Richardson had. This brought a reply from Mr. Gifford, who said that in his opinion, if the court was going to do justice, it should excuse the defendant. This speech brought a blast of applause from the Freshmen. Notwithstanding all this, Mr. Richardson got five hours, which decision brought loud booing and hissing from the Frosh. Mr. Lucker said that as there was plainly a majority of Freshmen present he was unable to stop the hissing, but the meeting would continue regardless. Mr. McKechnie then said that in former years when there was any hissing at the meetings the Freshmen were given double time on the coal pile, which statement stopped the hissing immediately.

Only a few Frosh were put up for being down the line. Mr. Cleary, however, had been down the line so much he had lost count of the times. He got twenty hours, the record for the evening.

When the business of the evening was over Dr. Edwards spoke about Assembly. He said that he was heartily in favor of Assembly, because it promoted college spirit and brought the students together at least once a week, giving them a chance to hear good speakers and learn everything that was going on about the college. He announced that instead of charging the student who cut Assembly one dollar per cut the student would have some task imposed upon him by either the Army or English department. This speech brought much applause from the Student Body, as the new arrangements will be much more favorable to the pocketbook of one who cuts Assembly.

Those receiving five hours on the coal pile were as follows: Richardson, Stevens, Hammett, Brenner, Winograd, Cull, Faunce, Hull, Baker, D. Randall, Tarbox, Marble, Spekin, Conn, Johnson, Miller, Campbell, Ziouchouski, Falk, Wise, Winslow, Heaton, C. Randall, Barney and Duckworth, ten hours, Blake, Allenson, Shaw, Clegg and Miner; twenty hours, Cleary.

FEATURE

To the readers of The Beacon:

The editor wishes to say that your co-operation is requested in this department. The most effective humor to college readers is class room humor. Jokes, amusing incidents and "fast cracks" are pulled in the class rooms every day. According to the theory of incompatibility the editor cannot be everywhere at once, so if you are interested in making your Beacon more interesting and amusing, jot them down and give them to us.

If our jokes don't make you laugh out loud, laugh up your sleeve, it's the direct route to the funny bone.

From time to time as the editor deems it necessary he will define a word which he hears being misused. This week it will be advice.

Advice—a commodity peddled by your professors, given away by your fraternity brothers, but impossible to dispose of yourself.

It is the only thing which is "More blessed to give than to receive." Good advice is something alumni give undergrads when they can no longer give them a bad example.

All persons who are interested in petitioning that a high board fence be built along Hurricane Alley to prevent it from functioning, will meet the editor at his office on the seventh floor of Science building (elevator not running).

"Proffy" had a little course,
He loved it very well.
He tried one day to trace its source
And found it was in—

—Sanskrit.

Prof. Don't talk out loud, please.
You disturb those taking the test.

Stude (sotto voce): Disturb nothing!
We're helping them!

A fool a roll
A girl no soul
Goodby roll!

Prof.—This is the third time you've looked on Jones' paper.

Stude—Yes, sir. He didn't write very plainly.—(Exchange)

Fresh: Where are the shower baths?
Soph: I don't know, I've only been here a year. (Ex.)

Lives of football men remind us:
'Tis for glory that we slug and, departing, leave behind us footprints on another's mug.—(Ex.)

Prof: Order! Gentlemen, order!

Stude (waking up): Ham and eggs,
French fried, coffee.—(Ex.)

You don't have to turn the light out on some people for them to be in the dark.—(Ex.)

"Co-eds at Frogollar College were all enthused lately over the idea of wearing to a dance dresses to match their date's hair—and all went well until one girl remembered that her man was bald. (No, we had better not print that—people unacquainted with us might get the idea that we are crude.)—The Richmond Collegian.

Sheik—How'd'ja get the dimple, kid?
Flapper—Sleeping on a collar button.
—(Ex.)

"Heh, mister, I'm a stranger here, where's left field?—Famous Sayings of Famous Men.

Y. W. C. A. SKETCH

Every class is going to have a Y. W. night of its own and may carry out any program it chooses.

Last Thursday was Senior night and they displayed their usual "pep" by entertaining with a sketch entitled: We Who Work.

The scene centered around Ruth Walsh as Dan Cupid, perplexed because she had been so unsuccessful in placing the Seniors. However, Louisa Latham as Miss Senior, helped Cupid out of the dilemma by suggesting the following positions for the R. I. Seniors: Mary Hansan, teacher; Louise Vaughn, dietitian; Rose Duggan, physical director; Evelyn Burdick, extension worker; Dorothy Markham, social service and Edith Moskovich, institutional manager.

After the sketch many R. I. and co-ed songs were practiced for the games, and Senior night culminated with the singing of our Alma Mater.

LOVE-LIFE OF AN ENGINEERING STUDENT

(Published by request)

Fools may sing of hearts and love,
And eyes and cheeks and hair;
Write sonnets to a woman's glove,
And swear her wonderous fair,
Bah! She's an artificial thing,
All powder, paint and lipstick.
But hearken to the song I sing,
And hail my love, the slip-stick.

Women are babbling all the time
Of dates and drinks and dresses;
Which wouldn't help at all when I'm Computing Torgues and Stresses.
It conquers without fear or doubt,
Whole hosts of sines and surds;
And helps me work in peace,
Without an avalanche of words.

Slide rules are always accurate,
And women never so.
And while they're not affectionate,
They never answer "No."
So thence with womn's wanton ways,
With eyebrows, lips and curls.
My little log-log Pholyphase
Is worth a dozen girls.

—Cornell Widow.

R. I. CO-EDS TRIM CONNECTICUT GIRLS 42-8

(Continued from page 1)

and mighty good shooting by Duggie. Starting from the center court with V. Broome and K. Clark there was quick and sure passwork up the floor when Duggie and Evey were waiting to shoot for the basket. As in the game at Connecticut, V. Broome's long passes put Connecticut on the defensive and Poko and Mil were up-to-the-minute at guarding. The final score was 42-8 in R. I.'s favor.

The lineup:

R. I.	CONN.
Duggan rf.....	lg Bartle
E. Burdick lf.....	rg Beasley
Broome c.....	c Ellis
Clark sc.....	sc Murphy
H. Burdick rg.....	lf Healey
Negus lg.....	rf Nase
Baskets—Duggan 14, E. Burdick 3, Broome 2, Nase 2, Healey 1, Case 1.
Fouls—Broome 1, Duggan 2, Burdick 1.

Time—Eight minute periods.

Referee—A. Bailey.

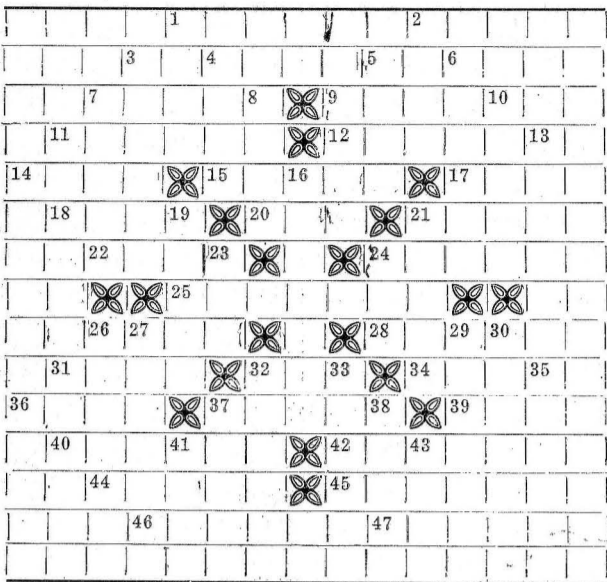

Umpire—Miss Harvey.

Has the "Camel Walk" gone out?
No, but it's been shortened to a mile.

—Ex.

Cross-word Puzzle No. 7

Answer In Next Week

—M. W. Callis.

ACROSS

- 3—To cry mildly
- 5—A sailor
- 7—Trotting horse
- 9—Command
- 11—To cause laughter
- 12—Rough kind of jacket
- 14—A prophet
- 15—Big
- 17—A wading bird
- 18—Distinguished aviators
- 20—Month of flowers
- 21—Aluminum plus alkali metal
- 22—Prepare for publication
- 24—Be afflicted (third, sing.)
- 25—Pertaining to Normandy
- 26—African dominoes
- 28—Put down forcefully (base-man stuff)
- 31—A "sheik"
- 32—Purpose
- 34—Very black
- 36—Sacreligious drink.
- 37—Argumentative assumption
- 39—Smell
- 40—Tidy (comp.)
- 42—Hash for cattle
- 44—Flat thin stones
- 45—Kind of parchment
- 46—To place
- 47—National Academy of Sciences

DOWN

- 1—Foot covering (often scented)
- 2—To lose color
- 3—Consecrated
- 4—Metal noise producer
- 5—Woody plant
- 6—Second filling
- 7—To patch
- 8—Twenty quires
- 9—Drunken revelry
- 10—Enigmatical representation
- 11—Society beverage
- 13—A border
- 16—Clothing (more or less)
- 19—From the time of
- 21—Interior passage
- 23—Part of foot
- 24—Answer (contr.)
- 26—Sand drifts
- 27—Standard of perfection
- 29—Dwellings
- 30—A pattern
- 31—Noise
- 32—Acoustic organs
- 33—Flour pudding
- 35—Negative conjunction
- 37—Financial obligation
- 38—Beacon of the night
- 41—Chinese coin
- 43—Draw by force

NOTE

Due to lack of space, the answers to the Freshman issue were not inserted in this issue. They may be obtained from M. E. Callis, the originator.
The Editor.

COMPARATIVE YEARLY R. I. BASKET BALL RESULTS

Varsity
Year	Played	Won	Lost	Pct
1924-25	16	11	5	.687
1923-24	15	9	6	.600

Increase .087 points.

Co-Eds
Year	Played	Won	Lost	Pct
1924-25	2	2	0	1.000
1923-24	3	2	1	.666

Increase .334 points.

Freshmen
Year	Played	Won	Lost	Pct
1924-25	11*	8	3	.727
1923-24	13	11	2	.846

Decrease .119 points.

* Not including the last Brown "Frosh", nor 1927-1928 games.

MUCH ENTHUSIASM RAISED AT MASS MEETING

(Continued from page 1)
plause. Everett Christopher, '26, then led several of the college songs, accompanied by George Pierce at the piano.

Prexy, in his speech, said that he came to the mass meeting to find out the extent of our real college spirit by our attendance and our actions. He was well satisfied with both, as every student in the college attended the meeting and their cheers could be heard for some distance. Prexy said that he wanted us to be good sports, whether we won or lost, although it would hurt his pride tremendously to have his own R. I. State lose to Connecticut. The way to win, he believed, is for us to encourage our team.

Dancing by Van-Att's Melodians, under the leadership of Att Wright, filled the remainder of the evening.

FOURTEEN BEACON VACANCIES FILLED

(Continued from Page 1)
these men do continual writing and are as important to the staff as those higher up.

On the business department we have Russell A. Eckloff, '27, advanced to advertising manager; R. Earle, '28, to subscription manager; and S. College, '28, to circulating manager. On the office department enters S. Engdahl, '28, and Mr. Asdilsian, '28.

Interest for the Beacon is evident in others than those already on the board, especially among the Freshmen, who are always welcome to contribute material and to try out for positions. Among these contributors are Messrs. Miller, Brenner and Madisen.

"Hi, Pat! That's a nice overcoat. Where did you get it?"

At Brooks' Tailor or restaurant?

Stage directions for this scene from William Vaughn Moody's play, "The Great Divide," call for a woman's muffled scream, a pistol shot, and the crash of breaking furniture. The microphone on the right sends them all to your home.

An Exciting Evening

Here are four of the WGY Players (the world's first radio dramatic company) at a thrilling climax that almost turns sound into sight.

Tune in, some evening, on one of their productions. You will be surprised to find how readily your imagination will supply stage and setting.

WGY, at Schenectady, KOA, at Denver, and KGO, at Oakland, are the broadcasting stations of the General Electric Company. Each, at times, is a concert hall, a lecture room, a news bureau, or a place of worship.

If you are interested to learn more about what electricity is doing, write for Reprint No. AR 391 containing a complete set of these advertisements.

GENERAL ELECTRIC

GENERAL ELECTRIC COMPANY, SCHENECTADY, NEW YORK

INTER-FRATERNITY BASKET BALL

(Continued from page 1)

Beta Phi five baffled as to what was going to happen next. passing game and at times had the Makin and Warde were the outstanding stars for P. I. K., the former getting three baskets from the floor. Cruickshank and La Chappell played well for the losers.

The summary:

P. I. K.
Makin rf
Warde lf
Mulcahy c
Shields rg
Barber lg
Rhody Iota Kappa 15, Beta Phi 10.
Goals from the floor: Makin 3, Warde Mulcahy, La Chappell, Cruickshank, Laycock. Goals from fouls: Warde, Mulcahy 3, Shields, La Chappell 2, Cruickshank, Laycock.
Referee McKechnie; Umpire Kimball; Timer Brightman; Scorer R. Christopher.

Delta Sigma Epsilon 19;

Lambda Chi Alpha 16

Delta Sigma Epsilon won its fifth straight victory by defeating Lambda Chi Alpha in a closely played and hard fought game, 19-16. The game was on edge from start to finish and at no time during the game did the winning team lead by more than two points.

Delta Sigma took the lead after two minutes of playing, when Orr dropped in two neat shots from the foul line. Donald quickly evened the count by dropping in a long-throw from the center of the court.

For the winners Smith and Orr played a great passing game, repeatedly taking the ball through the losing team for a basket. Orr got four baskets from the floor and five from the foul line. Wales played well at guard.

For the losers, Donald at center played well, getting five baskets, mostly long shots. Kimball and Galvin played well.

The summary:

"DESES"
Orr rf
Smith lf
Adams c
Wales rg
Byrne lg
LAMBDA CHI
rf Kimball lf Galvin
c Donald rg Smith
lg Conroy

Delta Sigma Epsilon 19; Lambda Chi Alpha 16. Goals from floor: J. Orr 4, Smith, Adams, Donald 5, Galvin, Kimball. Goals from fouls: J. Orr 5, Smith 2, Galvin 2. Substitutions: Ruhlman for Conroy, Ruhlman for Smith, Gilmore for Galvin. Referee McKechnie. Umpire Sandberg. Timer Cordin. Scorer Clegg.

'28—What made Hot Springs famous?

'27—Cleopatra used them in her couch.

VARSITY DEFEATED BY CONNECTICUT

"Rhody" Drops Final Contest to Rivals; Defense Weak; Baylock and Hill High Scorers

The Blue and White Varsity quintet finished up their season Saturday afternoon by dropping a hard-fought contest to the Connecticut Agricultural College quintet at Kingston.

Schofield of Connecticut started the scoring by dropping in a pretty shot from the side court, this, however, was closely followed by a basket from Jensen. Hill of Rhode Island then sunk another shot and Balock made good on one out of two free shot. The score then stood 4-3 in Rhody's favor.

From this point on, however, the Blue and White defense seemed to weaken and Balock of Connecticut pierced it and dropped in three baskets in rapid succession. This placed the visitors at the top of a 9-4 lead. At this point Rhody once more began to spurt and baskets by Braley and Hill and a foul by Haslam raised the score up to 9-7 in Connecticut's favor. Once more their defense seemed to weaken and the game became rougher. Baylock and Schofield contributed several half ended with the score standing 18-9 more baskets to their score and the in their favor.

In the first part of the second half the Blue and White quintet completely out-played their Connecticut opponents. Hill started the scoring by dropping in a basket and two fouls, Asher then sank a beautiful long shot from the middle of the court. This spurt placed them within six points of their opponents, but Connecticut once more started scoring, and, although both teams made many baskets, the visitors seemed to have the edge and managed to forge steadily ahead.

With the score standing 32-27 and with but five minutes to play, Makofski, Eddy and Schofield sank four baskets in rapid succession thus placing their team ahead by 38-27 at the end of the game.

Baylock and Schofield were the stars for Connecticut while Hill and Haslam scored most for Rhody. Capt. Pinto also played a good defensive game.

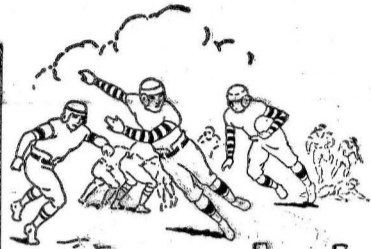

Rhode Island	Connecticut
Asher, rg	lg, Allard
Hill, lf	rg, Makofski
Haslam, c	c, Eddy
Jensen, rg	fg, Schofield
Pinto, lg	lf, Balock
Braley, c	lf, O'Brien
Rabinowitz, lg

Baskets—Hill 5, Haslam 3, Jensen, Braley, Ashby, Eddy, Balock 6, Schofield 3, Makofski. Fouls—Haslam 3, Hill, Jensen, Eddy 2, Balock, Makofski, Schofield.

Referee—Cody of Boston. Umpire—Tomey of Exeter. Time—20 minute halves. Scorer—Whalen.

Smith (to prospective caddie): Are you good at arithmetic? How much is six and five and four?

Boy: Twelve, sir.
E. R.: Oh, I think you'll do.

Hair Raising Events

---muss the hair unless a few drops of GLO-CO have been used. It keeps the hair combed all day; pleasing, refreshing; a liquid tonic.

At drug counters and barber shops everywhere.

GLO-CO (Gloss-Comb)

THE ORIGINAL LIQUID HAIR DRESS

Send for Sample Bottle
Mail coupon Today for generous trial bottle. Normany Products Co., 6511 McKinley Av., Los Angeles, Cal.
Name.....
Address.....

TUXEDOS - $2.75
For hire and for sale
D. R. Kinzie,
R. I. S. C. Rep.
Waldorf Clothing Co.
212 Union St.
Providence, R. I.

WE HAVE THE BEST In the Line of EATS Have You Tried Our Chocolate Frappe? Round Robin Club

A. H. Bliss, Steward.

L. Vaughn Co.

Established 1847
Manufacturers of
SASH, DOORS, BLINDS,
AND BUILDERS' FINISH
1153-1155 Westminster Street

COLLEGIATE CLOTHES

Browning King & Co.
Providence, R. I.

COLLEGIATE TUXEDOS

For Hire—$2.75
Narragansett Tailoring Co.
129 Weybosset St.
Providence, R. I.

"Kingston Hill Store"

GROCERIES NOTIONS
Light Lunches a Specialty
Cigars Cigarettes Candy
ICE CREAM

STUDENTS !!

From now on we shall serve Regular Meals at Moderate Prices

Try our specials

Steaks, Chops and Salads

GEORGE'S LUNCH

Home cooking City prices

RHODE ISLAND STATE COLLEGE

HOWARD EDWARDS, President

Agriculture, Applied Science, Business Administration, Engineering

(Chemical, Civil, Electrical, Mechanical), Home Economics

Entrance Requirements: Fifteen Units of High School Work

Expenses for Year, estimated at $400

For further information, address
The Registrar, Kingston, Rhode Island