Mr. James Banner, Jr.
American Association for the Advancement of the Humanities
918 16th Street, NW
Suite 601
Washington, DC 20006

Dear Mr. Banner:

It was a pleasure to meet you last week and to learn a bit about the American Association for the Advancement of the Humanities. I am delighted to know that such an organization is establishing itself here in Washington.

I must apologize, however, for the hurried nature of our meeting and hope that we might have a more relaxed talk sometime in the future.

With warm regards.

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
