Professor Virginia Floyd
Department of English
Bryant College
Smithfield, Rhode Island 02917

Dear Professor Floyd:

Thank you very much for your recent letter and for bringing me up to date on your activities. The research at Yale into the O'Neill papers sounds terrifically exciting. I also appreciated having an update on the Provinctown project.

It is a pleasure for me to write Joe Duffey at the Humanities Endowment to express my support for your Research Grant application. A copy of my letter is enclosed.

I wish you every success as you pursue this work which we in Rhode Island are so especially proud of.

Warm regards.

Ever sincerely,

Claiborne Pell
