The following table explains some of the key terms used in the analysis:

Column Heading	Description
Title Unique	Journals available in only one of your databases.
Holding Unique	Journals available in more than one database, but without overlapping coverage dates.
Total Unique	The sum of "Title Unique" and "Holding Unique" holdings.
Full Holding Overlap	Journals available in more than one database. The coverage dates of the reference holdings are completely overlapped by at least one comparison holding.
Partial Holding Overlap	Journals available in more than one database. The coverage dates of the reference holdings are only partly overlapped by at least one comparison holding.
Total Holding Overlap	The sum of "Full Holding Overlap" and "Partial Holding Overlap."
Title Overlap	Journals with overlap, but lacking enough information to define the overlap as "full" or "partial." Title Overlap is a separate category for titles with no coverage dates.
Total	The sum of "Total Unique" plus "Total Holding Overlap" plus "Title Overlap."
Percent Full Overlap	Percentage of all holdings in a database that are completely overlapped by at least one other holding from another database.
Percent Unique	Percentage of all holdings in a database that are either title unique or holding unique.
